NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

The expected Sanfeit Pasha will be appointed Grand Vizier, with Mahmud Nedim, Adrifi and Kheireddin Pasha as A Quiet Election—The New M. E. Church
—The Ohio Valley Iron Works.
The election passed off remarkably quiet here, not more than one-half of the usual number of votes being polled. The new County Court bill is defeated in this county by about 100 votes. Ed. Bonar, Republican, is elected County Superintendent of Schools.

The "Wheeling Edition" of the Pittsourgh Sunday Leader visited the Peniten tiary on Friday last for the purpose of interviewing Eli B. Ice, a life prisoner, who has been brought into some notoriety by an Associated Press report that the Grand Army of the Republic had passed a resolution declaring it their intention to make an effort to have him released. The result of the interview is published in last Sunday's Leader.

Bill back.

The question that appears to agitate the mind of the people here at present is, "Who has been telling tales out of school" (Board)? It all grows out of a reported objection urged by a member of the Board of Education of the Independent School District against one of the young gentlemen applicants for a position as teacher in the school.

Two Lectures by Wheeling Ladies.

I beg the privilege of inserting in the olumns of your paper a few items con cerning the lectures at the Dallas M. E. Church, given by Miss A. Taylor, Principal of the Wheeling Female Seminary and Miss Russell.

After singing by the choir, Miss Russell addressed, the audience on "The Worth of the Knowledge of Christ."

Sabbath evening Miss Russell addressed a arge and attentive audience on the subject of "Foreign Missions." The gist of the address was that after certain periods of enlightenment in the world's past history the nations had relapsed again into a state of heathenism, and adduced proofs there of, but the indications of the present were that the knowledge of Christ and the spread of the gospel would be universal and abiding.

After singing by the choir, Miss Russell addresses were good, and were world addressed with the suddresses were good, and were well received
